“Today, yesterday & tomorrow”

Management Summary

| | |
|--------------------------------|-------|
| Today and recent past. | 14-15 |
| Future | 15-17 |

Brazil

| | |
|---|----|
| Brazil's car market has stopped dancing, but music could soon start again | 18 |
| Market leader Fiat takes Volkswagen's best shots and still wins 2011 car sales race | 19 |
| Peugeot-Citroën down, Renault up | 20 |
| Chinese carmakers have landed. | 21 |
| Likely end of a hugely profitable car making oligopoly | 21 |
| Same familiar models at the head of Brazil's car sales chart | 21 |
| SUVs and Crossovers also popular in Brazil. | 22 |
| 2012 got off to a fine start | 23 |

Russia

| | |
|--|----|
| So far so good | 24 |
| Temporary bump in the road, or renewed setback? | 24 |
| Sense of pessimism, following Lada's poor start into the current year, may not be what it seems | 24 |
| Signs of Lada setback since last year's 4th quarter. | 25 |
| Hyundai's new and locally assembled Solaris gets off to blistering start | 25 |
| Hope springs eternal – newly rolled out Granta saloon could end Lada's renewed dry spell. | 26 |
| Lada takes a battering, heads Russia's losers' league | 26 |
| Lada, still seen as a comeback kid as recently as last year, and Russia's last remaining major carmaker, currently ranks as the greatest notable casualty in Russia's outwardly buoyant car market | 26 |
| 19.8% - Lada's domestic car sales share after two months – down from a still shining 27.8% a year earlier. | 26 |
| Land Rover swept along by Russia's SUV popularity | 28 |

India

| | |
|--|----|
| Cooler tone in India's slowing car market, 2012 estimates revised downwards. | 30 |
| India's consumers bought fewer cars in 2011 than earlier expected, suggesting that the intensifying squeeze on spending, the spiralling cost of credit, and higher fuel prices have taken a toll on Asia's third largest economy | 30 |
| Heat turns to chill, but to the relief of carmakers it doesn't last | 30 |
| October sales take headlong 23.8% plunge | 30 |
| 2011 car sales prospects revised downwards | 31 |

| | |
|--|----|
| Today's diesel pump price is 36% cheaper than petrol | 32 |
| Waiting lists – India's diesel share more than doubled to 40% plus | 32 |
| Honda in a double bind, down 24.1% | 32 |
| Maruti-Suzuki to buy up to 100,000 Indian-made diesels from Fiat | 33 |
| Mixed domestic car sales fortunes from market dominating Maruti-Suzuki. | 33 |
| Runner-up Hyundai keeps pace with India's overall market | 33 |
| Tata does well to hold sales dip to just 1.2% | 33 |
| 70,784 - Last year's calendar year sales of Tata's Nano | 34 |
| Looks better, but observers have been underwhelmed by Nano's poor sales performance. | 34 |
| Newcomers make spectacular inroads into India's slowing car market | 35 |
| Volkswagen Group doubles its sales. | 35 |
| Newcomer Nissan sets blistering sales pace | 36 |
| Slowing in Micra exports | 36 |

China

| | |
|---|----|
| China's express slows down | 37 |
| A year that began on a high note ended on a low, but brighter outlook ahead | 37 |
| Built-up imports prop up China's slowing car market | 38 |
| China's car market may be slowing, but someone forgot to tell China's rich – Exceptional demand for upmarket imports, on track to breach 1 million barrier for the first time this year | 38 |
| 33,500 - BMW 7-Series sales in last year's still booming Chinese luxury car market | 39 |
| 31,050 - Mercedes 2011 S-Class sales in China, up from the 25,000 sold in 2010 | 39 |
| Audi streaks ahead with 37.3% sales gain to 313,036, thus setting a new all-time sales record | 39 |
| 313,036 - Audi's 2011 cars sales in China – includes record 57,888 imports | 40 |
| Voracious appetite for prestige-badge SUVs | 40 |
| 19,000 - Audi's full year 2011 Q7 sales in China | 41 |
| BMW's SUVs also on a roll | 41 |
| China's car import market remains on a roll | 42 |
| Domestics on the retreat again | 42 |
| 29% - Car sales share retained by intrinsic Chinese carmakers in 2011 | 43 |
| BYD, China's domestic front-runner, suffers 13% fall in home sales | 43 |
| 253,500 - Buick Excelle sales in 2011 – China's top-seller | 44 |

2012 so far...

| | |
|--|----|
| Brazil's car sales sizzle has fizzled out | 46 |
| Temporary purchase tax cuts to boost spending | 46 |
| For BRIC markets like Brazil, it seems, the future simply isn't what it used to be | 46 |
| VW and Fiat market supremacy battle distorts true picture | 47 |
| Fiat, after taking Volkswagen's best shots, remains the market leader. | 47 |
| 4.8 percentage points - Fiat's stunning September market share gain | 48 |
| 2 in 3 of the new cars sold in Brazil are Fiat, VW and Chevrolet cars | 48 |
| Big squeeze not without its victims | 49 |
| Importers take severe hammering, none more so than Hyundai-Kia | 49 |
| -53.3% - Hyundai-Kia's drop in September car sales | 50 |

Russia

| | |
|---|----|
| Russia's July new car sales edge narrowly ahead of Germany | 51 |
| 2.85m - AEB's 2012 light vehicle sales forecast for Russia | 51 |
| 41,684 - Volkswagen Polo sales in Russia in seven months to July this year. | 52 |
| 3,240 - Range Rover Evoque sales in Russia during this year's first half | 53 |
| GM dethroned by VW Group as Russia's 2nd biggest foreign carmaker | 53 |
| Renault also a winner in leading group | 54 |
| Toyota also charging ahead, almost doubles July sales. | 55 |
| Russia's rich have yet to rein in their luxury car spending | 55 |
| 1,340 - Number of Porsche Cayenne SUVs sold in Russia this first half | 55 |
| 2.3% - Market share of Chinese car brands in Russia's 7-months car market | 56 |

India

| | |
|---|----|
| India's car market running low on fuel | 58 |
| Supply issue throws August car market into double-digit reverse | 58 |
| -89.3% - August sales dive from Maruti's Swift. | 59 |
| Even Volkswagen halted in its tracks | 59 |
| -48.5% - Drop in Vento's August sales. | 60 |
| -73.7% - Škoda Fabia's August sales deficit. | 61 |
| 61,547 - Eight months domestic Nano sales | 61 |
| 3,184 - August sales of the Renault-badged Dacia Duster SUV | 62 |

China

| | |
|---|----|
| Suddenly the future for Japanese cars in China looks complicated | 63 |
| Japanese pains are VW's gains | 63 |
| 400,000 - Audi's 2012 annualised car sales in China after 9-months | 64 |
| BMW narrows the gap to sector leading Audi | 65 |
| -49.5% - Toyota's September car sales dive in China. | 65 |
| 10.2 percentage points - VW Group's lead margin over 2nd placed GM Group at this year's 9-months stage. | 66 |
| Signs that Hyundai-Kia has lost some of its former sparkle | 66 |

| | |
|---|----|
| Switch or postponement? | 66 |
| Greatwall now top-ranked Chinese passenger car brand, swept along by SUV/Crossover sales wave. | 67 |
| So far so good, China's insatiable appetite for prestige sector toys shows few signs of slowing | 69 |
| 15,400 - Porsche's nine months Cayenne sales in China, up more than a half | 69 |

Turkey

| | |
|--|----|
| Europe shivers in lingering chill, but Turkey's car sales train avoided derailment | 71 |
| Second successive month of car sales growth sends out upbeat message | 71 |
| Booted Small- and Lower-Medium sector cars most popular | 72 |
| 59% - Turkey's diesel car sales share during first half | 72 |
| Close run race for first four slots in Turkey's 2011 top-ten best-sellers | 73 |
| 10.6% - Turkey's 1st half SUV-Crossover sales penetration | 73 |
| Greatest casualty among front-runners is Renault-Dacia, VW this year's star performer | 74 |
| In August VW Group reached a new milestone by outselling fast-fading Renault-Dacia | 75 |
| Hyundai-Kia's performance is good but not outstanding | 75 |
| Ford's bunkers also drew some heavy shelling | 75 |
| Prestige car sales are on the rise, albeit from very low levels | 76 |
